

Major Policy Legislative issues in the Land and Mapping Sector

The Kingdom of Swaziland is still faced with a challenge of adopting the National Land Policy and the Land Bill. The Department of the Surveyor General played a major role in the production of the Draft National Land Policy and the Draft Land Bill. Currently the Draft Land Bill is still being considered at Ministerial Level and it is hoped that the Cabinet would soon map a way forward on how various stakeholders would be consulted on the Draft Bill.

UN-GGIM Knowledge Base

<http://ggim.un.org/knowledgebase/KnowledgebaseArticle51550.aspx>