

Chengdu Forum on UN-GGIM
Global Map for Sustainable Development:
Development and Applications in Urban Hazard Mapping
Chengdu, China, 15 – 17 October 2013

National Address

Dr. Li Pengde

Deputy Director General

National Administration of Surveying, Mapping and Geoinformation China

Development and Applications of Emergency Mapping in China

Abstract

The presentation will introduce the status of China's emergency mapping command system development, and focus on the management structure, technology system and command platform. Some emergency mapping applications will be presented. And the development goals and future plans of emergency mapping in China will be discussed