Developing Strategies and Implementing Geospatial Solutions for the Sustainable Development Goals,
United Nations Office in Vienna, International Centre
Vienna, Austria, 9 – 13 February 2026

Logistical and Information Note

---

Preamble

In this logistical and information note, you will find relevant information about the logistics and arrangements for the Expert Consultation and related Meetings on Developing Strategies and Implementing Geospatial Solutions for the Sustainable Development Goals, including information on the venue, visa, accommodation, and general information about Vienna, Austria.

Logistical arrangements for the event

The in-person Expert Consultation and related Meetings on Developing Strategies and Implementing Geospatial Solutions for the Sustainable Development Goals is organized by the United Nations Statistics Division (UNSD), as the Secretariat for the Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management (UN-GGIM). The event will generally be from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day.

---

Language

The working language of the meeting will be conducted in English.

---

Participants

Participation in the events is by invitation only. Participants are expected to be designated geospatial information management representatives, lead or focal persons, and subject matter experts from the Expanded Bureau and the HLG-IGIF for 9 - 11 February meetings, and UN-GGIM Europe/Eastern Europe and neighboring regions for 11 - 13 February. Participants are responsible for obtaining the necessary transit and entry visas, including necessary travel and health insurance as applicable.

---

Dates of meetings

Transportation

---

Participants are responsible for making their own arrangements for transport to and from the airport and the Vienna International Centre.

Vienna Airport Lines offer bus connections between Vienna International Airport and Vienna. Line 3 operates between Vienna International Airport and the Vienna International Centre (next to the Kaisermühlen/Vienna International Centre U-Bahn station on the U1 metro line). The trip takes approximately 40 minutes. Information on Vienna Airport Lines services, routes, and timetables is available on the following website: www.viennaairportlines.at/en.

Visa

Participants are responsible for acquiring entry visas into Vienna, Austria, and any necessary transit visas, including necessary travel and health insurance as applicable. The United Nations will not be able to assist in bearing any related costs or in obtaining the required visa.

Participants who require a visa must contact the appropriate Austrian diplomatic or consular authorities and apply for a Schengen short-stay (C) visa at least three weeks prior to their intended date of arrival in Austria. In countries where Austria does not have diplomatic or consular representation, visa applications may be submitted to the consular authority of a State Party to the Schengen Agreement acting on behalf of Austria in the country concerned.

Postal services

---

A post office located on the 1st floor of C-Building (room C0101, extension 4986) provides all regular postal services and is open from 9:00 to 11.15 a.m. and from 12:00 noon to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday. Wireless network connection.

Free wireless Internet access is available at the Vienna International Centre, including in the conference rooms.

Weather

---

The temperatures in Austria in February is cold with average high temperatures around 37-45°F (3-7°C) and average lows around 25-28°F (-4 to -2°C). The weather is generally breezy, and while snowfall is possible, it is usually light and short-lived.

Banks

---

Bank Austria has a branch providing full banking services on the 1st floor of C-Building of the Vienna International Centre, as well as cash dispensers at the entrance to D-Building and on the 1st floor of C-Building. The office hours of the branch are currently 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday to Friday.

Catering services

---

A cafeteria, a restaurant, and a cocktail lounge are located on the ground floor of F-Building.
