Documentation for the Session

Note by the Secretariat

1. The official languages of the United Nations are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. These will consequently be the official languages of the Committee session.
2. Technical reports will be prepared by the Secretariat or other designated authors in line with the items of the provisional agenda, as approved by the Bureau of the Committee. This technical documentation will be available in English. The reports supporting the various agenda items will be made available to delegates three weeks ahead of the start of the session, i.e. at the latest on 15 July 2020. These reports will be posted on the website of the United Nations Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management (UN-GGIM) at: <http://ggim.un.org/meetings/GGIM-committee/10th-session/>.
3. With the items of the provisional agenda providing context, governments are invited to forward country reports on the status of their geospatial information management/activities to the UN-GGIM Secretariat at their earliest convenience. These country reports serve the purpose of exchanging practical information among Member States and support knowledge sharing. All country reports will be loaded on the Committee website. Country reports may be prepared in any of the official languages and to the extent possible, it is suggested, that each document be accompanied by a summary in English. Acronyms and abbreviations should be spelled out the first time they appear. Documents may be e-mailed to the Secretariat (see addresses below) either in Microsoft Word or portable document format (PDF).
