

Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management

Eleventh session

New York, 23, 24 and 27 August 2021

Item 4 of the agenda

Contribution of regional committees and thematic groups to the global geospatial information agenda (for discussion and decision)

Statement provided by: MEXICO
Statement: Mexico participates in a subcommittee and five groups of the United Nations Expert Committee on Global Geospatial Information Management: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Subcommittee on Geodesy (formerly WG on Global Geodetic Reference Frame):• Expert Group on Land Administration and Management.• Expert Group on the Integration of Statistical and Geospatial Information.• Working Group on Geospatial Information and Services for Disasters• Working Group on Marine Geospatial Information• Inter-Agency and Expert Group on the Sustainable Development Goal Indicators (IAEG-SDGS) Working Group on Geospatial Information Mexico recognizes the work and achievements of the regional committees and working groups aimed to strengthening and increasing the use of geospatial information for multiple purposes, through the development of capacities and actions taken to support Member States in their response to the COVID-19 pandemic during the intersessional period. Mexico collaborates with the United Nations Geographical Names Group of Experts at a regional level, as the current Presidency of Latin American Language Division, Mexico promotes technical and regulatory advice through international cooperation projects. Additionally, coordinates the activities to integrate, register and disseminate the geographical names of the national territory.
Submitted on:	Click or tap to enter a date.