

Eleventh Session of the Committee of Experts on UN-GGIMSide Event*The Geospatial Societies and the pandemic*Tuesday 17 August 2021, 6:00 AM (EDT) /12:00 PM (CET)

Currently the members of the UN-GGIM Geospatial Societies are:

- Geoscience and Remote Sensing Society (IEEE-GRSS)
- International Association of Geodesy (IAG)
- International Cartographic Association (ICA)
- International Federation of Surveyors (FIG)
- International Geographical Union (IGU)
- International Map Industry Association (IMIA)
- International Society for Digital Earth (ISDE)
- International Society of Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing (ISPRS)
- International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics (IUGG)

Program: In this session each organization will present their situation caused by the Covid19 pandemic. We also want to discuss the following questions:

- How is the pandemic currently affecting our activities?
- Are there lessons learned from the pandemic?
- What will be the future of our organizations?

Outcome: we want to achieve a better coordination and a closer cooperation among the members of the Geospatial Societies. This will also increase our resilience against global threats like Covid19 and allow us to contribute in a significantly better way to the SDGs.
