Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management Fourteenth session

New York, 7 – 9 August 2024

Item 2 of the provisional agenda*

Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters

Documentation for the session

Note by the Secretariat

1. The official languages of the United Nations are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. They will consequently be the official languages of the fourteenth session of the Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management.
2. Technical reports will be prepared by the Secretariat or other designated authors in line with the items of the provisional agenda, as approved by the Bureau of the Committee. This technical documentation will be available in English. The reports supporting the various agenda items will be available to delegates three weeks prior to the start of the session, at the latest on 16 July 2024. The reports will be posted on the website of the Committee at: <https://ggim.un.org/meetings/GGIM-committee/14th-session/>.
3. With the items of the provisional agenda providing context, Governments are invited to forward country reports on the status of their geospatial information management arrangements and activities to the secretariat of the Committee at their earliest convenience. The country reports serve to facilitate the exchange of practical information among Member States and to support knowledge-sharing. All country reports will be loaded on the Committee website in the original language or languages of submission. Country reports may be prepared in any of the official languages, and to the extent possible, it is suggested, that each document be accompanied by a summary in English. Acronyms and abbreviations should be spelled out the first time they appear. Documents may be e-mailed to the secretariat of the Committee (see addresses below) either in Microsoft Word or PDF. The submitted country reports will not be reviewed nor edited by the Secretariat.

* E/C.20/2024/1.
