Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management

Sixteenth session

New York, 5-7 August 2026

Item 2 of the provisional agenda*

Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters

Documentation for the session

Note by the Secretariat

1. The official languages of the United Nations are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian, and Spanish. They will consequently be the official languages of the sixteenth session of the Committee of Experts on Global Geospatial Information Management.
2. Technical reports will be prepared by the Secretariat or other designated authors in line with the items of the provisional agenda, as approved by the Bureau of the Committee. This technical documentation will be available in English. The reports supporting the various agenda items will be available to delegates three weeks prior to the start of the session, at the latest on 15 July 2026. The reports will be posted on the website of the Committee at <https://ggim.un.org/meetings/GGIM-committee/16th-session/>.
3. With the items of the provisional agenda providing context, Governments are invited to forward country reports on the status of their geospatial information management arrangements and activities to the Secretariat at their earliest convenience. The country reports serve to facilitate the exchange of practical information among Member States and to support knowledge-sharing. All country reports will be posted on the Committee website in the original language or languages of submission. Country reports may be prepared in any of the official languages. To the extent possible, it is suggested that each document be accompanied by a summary in English. Acronyms and abbreviations should be spelled out the first time that they appear. Documents may be emailed to the Secretariat (see addresses below) either in Microsoft Word or PDF. The submitted country reports will not be reviewed or edited by the Secretariat.

4. Correspondence relating to the session may be addressed to the Secretariat as follows:
